Thus stands the ticket, announced this day: For Commons, O. P. Meares, Frederick D. Poisson.

He is truly a representative man—possessing the essentials for the place he is destined to fill.

Mr. Poisson is one of our ablest young lawyers, and a working, zealous advocate of equal taxation. Ever since the nomination of Pool and Ellis, Major Poisson has done good service for the Opposition, and more than once carried dismay into the enemy's strong hold. Said Peter is a dark negro, about 18 to 20 years old, 5 feet or 5 feet 6 inchine lion than the hare. And the Democrats have put up their strong men. They are badly scared and dare not do anything for policy's sake. They have done too observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing borhood—would do well to call soon, as I am sure the place ward for his return to me, or his lodgment in the jail of New much of that already, and are now reaping the bitter fruits. The people are aroused—they will not stand "rough shod" rule any longer. Cliques have governed long enough-now is the time for the people to speakand at the ballot box in August they will speak, and in such tones that the strong holds of Democracy, with the well laid in stores of public plunder, will be scattered
